 Flamboyant

Editorial Flamboyant

Editorial Flamboyant publishes picture books and board books for children aged 2–12 years old. We publish the best Spanish and international authors and illustrators and we place an emphasis on the quality of our editions.

Objectives

Children

- To contribute towards their intellectual development and enrichment through texts and images that stimulate their imagination and artistic sensitivity.
- To cultivate empathy, enrich their perspectives and help them to have views of their own.

Teachers

- To create books that help them to respond to children's questions and needs in the classroom in a fun and stimulating way.
- To bring them stories that enable them to work on new trends in education, such as emotional learning.

Parents

- To publish books that they can read together as a family—an item around which they can get together and talk, and in this way, strengthen their emotional ties.

The Colour Monster

Anna Llenas

Have you ever had your emotions all mixed up? That's exactly what happened to the Colour Monster, who has to learn how to sort out happiness, sadness, anger, fear, and calm. With this marvellous picture book and its expressive illustrations, your child can easily identify the different emotions felt throughout the day.

The picture book has gone into print more than 20 times, with over 300,000 copies sold only in Spain, and it has been published in 16 languages.

The picture book The Colour Monster has become a bedside book in Spanish classrooms to work on emotional learning with boys and girls aged 3-5 years old.

It has been chosen by the NGO Think Equal, with the collaboration of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, to be included in the emotional learning programme that will be introduced in all schools throughout the world, which will have Sri Lanka as its pilot country.

5th ANNIVERSARY

Anna Llenas was born in Barcelona. She holds a degree in Advertising and Public Relations from the Autonomous University of Barcelona and took up studies in Graphic Design at the Escola Superior de Disseny i Art Llotja. In the early days of her professional career in the advertising industry, she worked as an Art Director at Bassat Ogilvy, until one day, she decided to go her own way and work for herself. She specialised in Illustration at the EINA University School and created her own design projects, which are sold through different channels. She has done graphic work for different clients such as: La Vanguardia, Nestlé, or the Generalitat of Catalonia. At present, she is an art therapist. She also works with other authors and different publishing houses illustrating their stories. The Colour Monster was her first work as both author and illustrator.

Elétrico 28

Magali Le Huche and Davide Cali

Elétrico 28 is the third album by Magali Le Huche that Flamboyant incorporates into its catalogue. This time illustrating a wonderful text by the prolific author Davide Cali.

In Lisbon, catch the Elétrico 28 is not to get on any tram.

“Berta dreams night and day about her destiny. Can you imagine what it will be?”

Bertha Goodfaith Is Sad

Magali Le Huche

Being moved to tears by a story is a cathartic release that both children and adults alike share. In this moving picture book—full of life and expressiveness—Bertha is saddened and she doesn't know why. It's a good thing that she has Edmund, Cancan, and Pigeon, who will do everything they can so that she can be happy again. This is a song to love, friendship, and optimism, which will surely enthrall all readers.

For Amadeo, his driver, make his magnificent yellow trolley down, turn, zigzag ... has a secret purpose.

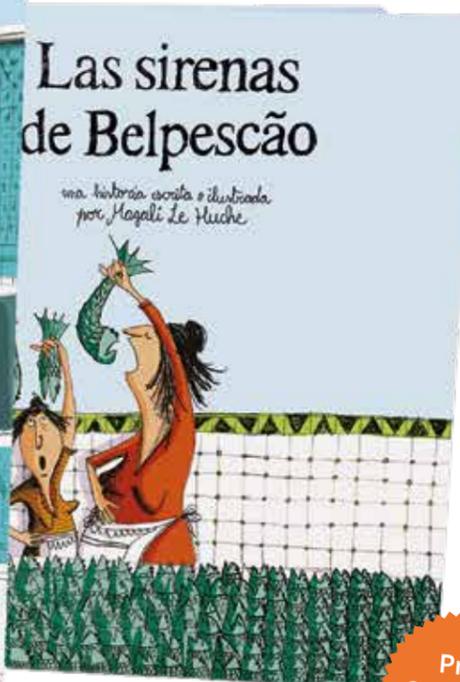

A simple journey can be transformed into a trip full of surprises ... and kisses!

Hurry up! Get on! The Elétrico 28 is waiting for you.

“A simple journey transformed into a trip full of surprises.”

“Do the sirens exist? It is said that in Belpescão they do.”

The Mermaids of Belpescão

Magali Le Huche

A story like those from before: with a conflict to resolve, an adventure, a search, love lost and found, the sea, music, and some mysterious beings. With the difference that there are no heroes here—only heroines: three strong, funny, and brave women who will stimulate children's imagination. Let the adventure begin!

MAGALI LE HUCHE BOOKS

Magali Le Huche was born in Paris in 1979. As a child, she wanted to be a singer and dancer. But in the end she decided to study drawing at the École Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs de Strasbourg. She has illustrated over forty children books, some of which she has written and illustrated. Her comic series Jean-Michel le caribou was adapted into a cartoon tv-series.

In Flamboyant, besides Elétrico 28, written by Davide Cali, she has published Berta Goodfaith is sad and The mermaids of Belpescão, which in 2006 won the prestigious French prize Prix Sorcières for the Best Picture Book.

Davide Cali is a prolific and multi-awarded Italian author. He currently lives in Switzerland and plays the electric guitar in a rock band. He has published more than ninety books, especially picture books and comics, and has been translated into more than thirty languages. Sometimes he likes to sign his works with a pseudonym. Humour, rhythm and an incredible imagination are the hallmarks of their texts. He has received many awards and recognitions, including the Prix Baobab at the Salon du livre et de la presse jeunesse de Montreuil (Paris) or the Warsaw Fair Prize. It has been selected up to four times in the White Ravens lists.

Elétrico 28 is his first picture book published in Flamboyant.

Round And Yellow

Muriel Villanueva and Ferran Orta

Summer has arrived and it's time to go to Summer Camp. But he does not want to go. He has a Round Yellow secret that appears on his bed sheet every night and he does not want anyone to know about it. What will this annoying secret be? Will he finally get rid of it and enjoy the Summer Camp?

“A picture book that confronts us with our fears and invites us to overcome them.”

Muriel Villanueva is a writer and writing teacher who holds a diploma in Musical Education and a degree in Literary Theory and Comparative Literature. She has published more than fifteen poetic and narrative works for children, young adults and adults. She has received many prizes and her books have been translated into several languages.

I cannot sleep

Gracia Iglesias and Ximo Abadía

We have all had one of those nights when the dream does not come, in which we have to invent tricks to sleep. Tricks like counting sheep. One little sheep, two little sheep, three...

The sheep in I cannot sleep will come into the house and with their imaginative pirouettes will sneakily tuck us in. How many sheep will it take to make us stop counting?

Junior Library Guild selection

“A modern lullaby with evocative illustrations that will make us dream.”

Gracia Iglesias is the author of poetic, narrative and art criticism texts—intended for an adult audience—published by different publishing houses in Spain, England, Mexico and Japan. Nevertheless, most of her literary works have been for children. She has been published in Spain, England, Mexico and Japan. Since 1999, she has actively participated in programs to promote reading through creativity workshops and courses. She has been working as a professional actress and storyteller since 2008. She has been awarded in several poetry prizes.

Ximo Abadía has published books with more than a dozen Spanish and international publishing houses, and he regularly collaborates with magazines and newspapers. In 2016, he was chosen as one of the illustrators to be included in the Catálogo Iberoamericano de Ilustración, and one of his works was included in the annual White Ravens Catalogue. In 2017, it was chosen for the Bologna Children's Book Fair Award. For all that, if Ximo Abadía were to describe himself, he would say that he likes the soil, chaos, crayons, rocks, getting lost, his dog, graphite, small things, the vegetable garden, getting dirty and walking barefoot.

Women Inventors and Their Inventions

Aitziber Lopez and Luciano Lozano

Have you noticed the objects, machines and furniture that you have around you? All have been invented by someone. And many of these objects were designed by women, by girls who, like you, wanted to improve the world.

It is impossible to talk about all the inventions and all the inventors, but here you have a nice and fun selection. Get a little closer and plunge into a world of progress!

“ We already know a lot about what MEN did and now it’s time to talk a little about ourselves.

Aitziber Lopez was born on 1981. Curious since she was a child, she always wanted to be a scientist. She graduated in Chemistry and finished her PhD. She has tried to dedicate her career to research. She has worked in a cosmetic company as a product developer and nowadays she is dedicated to the investigation of biomaterials.

Luciano Lozano was born the same year that man travelled to the moon. Maybe that’s why, since childhood he has travelled a lot. Self-taught, he has been working in illustration since 2007, after completing a postgraduate course in Creative Illustration at the Eina school in Barcelona. He regularly collaborates with numerous publishers and magazines. His work has received awards and recognitions nationally and internationally. He currently lives in Barcelona.

I’m a Little Pig

Eva Santana and Carmen Saldaña

Amazingly funny picture book in which animals and humans exchange roles. Ideal to talk about habits and manners with children.

“ Why does everyone run for cover when they see me coming?

Eva Santana. I was born on a stormy night in July. I’ve been writing ever since I can remember. I’ve always liked drawing as well, but I didn’t learn how to do it until I was older. Now I do both: writing and drawing. I believe that books help children become incredible people.

Carmen Saldaña. Hi, my name is Carmen Saldaña. I live in Gijón, a small, rainy city in northern Spain. I’m a freelance illustrator and I find the publishing world fascinating. I love animals, birds, bugs and everything related to nature, which is my main source of inspiration.

“An enthralling story about what happens when children defy adults.”

Third edition!

This is Not a Jungle Susanna Isern and Rocio Bonilla

It all started the day when Paula decided to say no. Saying no was great. Paula could do whatever she wanted... But then it happened... Her house turned into a REAL jungle with trees, vines, lush vegetation... and all the animals right in their element.

Third edition!

The Great Book of Superpowers Susanna Isern and Rocio Bonilla

All of us have a talent that makes us special and unique. Others are good at mathematics while others excel at cooking. Some are adventurous while others prefer to read. Discover what makes you different from others, neither better nor worse. What is your talent?

“A beautifully illustrated collection of talents which will make you reflect on your identity, and on your virtues and capabilities.”

Susanna Isern is a writer, psychologist, and mother of three. Since her first picture book was launched in 2011, she has published more than thirty children's books. Most of her works are sold around the world and can be found—aside from in Braille—in fifteen languages. Two of her works have been awarded the silver medal in 2013 and in 2015, respectively, at the prestigious Moonbeam Children's Books Awards in the United States. She currently juggles her passion for writing with psychology. She heads the Aula Dédalo medical office in Santander and is a professor of the Psychology of Learning at the European University of the Atlantic.

Rocio Bonilla holds a Fine Arts degree from the University of Barcelona and a Postgraduate Certificate in Education. She also studied illustration under Ignasi Blanch and Roger Olmos. Since 2010, she has combined illustration with mural painting. And she has published several works in magazines, in addition to posters and around thirty books. She is the author and illustrator of several books. What Colour is a Kiss? was the Winner of the Spanish Ministry of Education and Culture Best Book Award 2015. Her works have been translated and published in Canada, the United States, France, Belgium, Italy, Portugal, Korea, Taiwan, and China.

Counting Lions

Katie Cotton and Stephen Walton

Do you hear how the lions roar? Do you see how the elephants walk through the plains? Sit down on the banks of the reservoir and listen to the birds as they splash about and sing around you...

These stunning, full-page, black-and-white illustrations—portraying a magnificent lion or up to ten striking zebras—give readers the chance to get up close and personal with nature’s wildest creatures. Poetic texts, supplemented with very clear information, reveal how endangered animals live and survive on Earth.

● Royalties from the sale of this book will be donated to the Born Free Foundation.

“A stunning celebration of the animal world which the entire family can enjoy.”

Katie Cotton studied English at the University of Oxford and worked in Education before beginning to write and edit illustrated children’s books. She lives in London.

Stephen Walton, a self-taught and multi-awarded artist, works as a supervisor and regular photographer at the Bury Art Museum in Manchester (England). His vision of art has evolved thanks to his experiences at this centre. He trained as a geographer at Manchester University.

Virginia McKenna, a member of the Order of the British Empire, founded the charitable organisation Zoo Check—committed to animal protection—in 1984, together with her husband and eldest son. She did so after the premature death of Pole Pole—an elephant that she met while shooting the documentary An Elephant Called Slowly, and which the Government of Kenya had given to the London Zoo afterwards. Zoo Check eventually became the Born Free Foundation. Prior to her involvement with animal welfare and conservation, Virginia McKenna was an actress. She is best remembered for her role as Joy Adamson in the film Born Free (1966), where she starred together with her husband, the late Bill Travers. She lives in the Surrey Hills area (England).

Oops My heart is broken

Elif Yemenici

At times, our dreams shatter into bits, and wham! Our heart breaks.

This is what happened to Kalben that day. No matter what she did, it seemed that there was nothing she could do to fix it. How do you mend a broken heart?

“The simplest recipes to mend broken hearts. A short story full of tenderness and emotion which has captivated its publishers.”

Elif Yemenici studied at the School of Fine Arts of Eskişehir Anadolu. Afterwards, she graduated from the Etching and Engraving Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts at Anadolu University, and she specialised in Television, Film and Communication later on. She has taken part in local and international exhibitions; she has illustrated and written for books, newspapers and magazines. She continues her works in illustration, plastic and digital arts in her workshop in Istanbul.

Great Tools for Small Warriors

Flamboyant's new collection on personal growth

Why wait to become adults to use great tools that will help us to be more creative, happier and better people?

SECOND EDITION

Includes an audio link!

“Mindfulness for children.”

Relaxation

Mamen Duch and Guridi

This book contains simple tools for your children to relax, so that they can practice—by themselves or with your help—full attention or mindfulness. With it, calm and concentration come, thereby enhancing and improving everything that they already have within: confidence, self-esteem, concentration, intuition, creativity, etc.

“Nothing beats what you can cook up in your head!”

Thoughts

Sofía Gil and Mercè Galí

Our mind never stops, not even while we sleep. This book can help children identify the thoughts that make them feel nervous, restless, sad or angry. What's more, they can learn great tricks so that the thoughts that are not pleasant to them quickly leave their small but marvellous minds!

NEW COLLECTION!

Mamen Duch yoga master and founder of Yogui Kids (www.yoguidkids.com), is a certified yoga teacher for children—by Shari Vilchez-Blatt of Karma Kids Yoga in New York—since 2008, and a certified yoga teacher for children with special needs by Craig Hanauer, after completing the Every Kid's Yoga training programme. She graduated in Performing Arts from the Institut del Teatre in 1991 and founded the company T de Teatre. She has worked as a film, theatre, and television actress. She also trains teachers, educators, and actors. In addition, she works on social action projects related to yoga and theatre. She is the author of the book Maya y el yoga.

Raúl Nieto Guridi studied Painting at the Faculty of Fine Arts in Seville. Since then, he has worked in practically all fields of graphics, printing, design, and advertising. From 1995 onwards, he has specialised in graphic arts and the multimedia industry. Since 2010, his work has mainly focused on illustrations in children's publishing and posters for cultural campaigns involving theatre, dance, and puppets, as well as book covers for La Joie de Lire. He gives workshops on illustration and creativity. He also collaborates with several NGOs. His books have been translated into a dozen languages and he has received several international illustration awards, such as the Special Mention on the BRAW 2018.

Sofía Gil holds a degree in Psychology, a Master's degree in Clinical and Health Psychology and a Master's degree in General Medical Psychology from the University of Murcia. She believes in accessible, modern, innovative and dynamic psychology adapted to the breakthroughs made at dizzying speed in today's society. This is why she founded MindUp Psicólogos (mindup-psicologos.com) in 2014. Her dream: to contribute towards improving people's emotional well-being, mental strength and quality of life, in order to bring out their very best!

Mercè Galí grew up amidst stories and books in her parents' bookshop. She studied Illustration at La Llotja in Barcelona, as well as the speciality of Engraving in Fine Arts at the University of Barcelona. She is interested in the spontaneity of the stroke, the collage, photography, playing with chance and seeking the ultimate expression in the simplest of things. She appreciates a sense of humour and tries to bring the imagination beyond the text to get a smile of complicity from the reader. She currently combines her work as an illustrator and teaching courses and workshops with her facet as an artist.

Leyla Fonten fables

Tülin Kozikoğlu and Sedat Girgin

Leyla Fonten is the great-granddaughter of the famous Jean de La Fontaine, author of countless fables. She lives with nine animals: a dog, a cat..., including a frog and a porcupine! What's more, each of them has their own character, and Leyla Fonten has to live with them and deal with their peculiarities and personalities.

A fun-filled series of nine books in which each story shows us different problems that are characteristic of each animal, such as laziness, sadness or stubbornness. Children can identify with the animals and see the positive and negative aspects of their personality.

Titles in the collection:

- Paula, la eriza testaruda
- Pablo, el pez perezoso
- Petra, la araña furiosa
- Rita, la pajarita miedosa
- Alfredo, el ratón sabiondo (in preparation)
- Sara, la gatita triste (in preparation)
- Laura, la rana envidiosa (in preparation)
- Marco, el perrito tímido (in preparation)
- Ana, la mosquita impaciente (in preparation)

Dogger

Shirley Huges

Kate Greenaway Medal 1977

All children have something that they can't live or sleep without. For David, this is a stuffed dog. When he loses it, he is inconsolable. Lucky for him that, sometimes, older sisters can surprise us and become our best allies. Dogger was published in 1977 in England and was awarded the Kate Greenaway Medal. Thirty years later, the English public voted it as the best book among all those given the Greenaway Award throughout its half-century of history.

Findus Moves Out
Sven Nordqvist

Who doesn't dread the day when their children fly the coop? Old Pettson is sick of Findus the cat waking him up every morning with the racket he makes by jumping up and down his bed. He tells him that if he doesn't stop doing it, they'll have to move his bed out somewhere else. Findus thinks that it's a great idea. This way, he can jump to his heart's content. But... is living alone really so much fun? Perhaps it could also be a little dangerous, given that there's a fox around...
